Dear Dr. Gillis,

Your letter enclosing Money Order for $12.50 received. We are sending under separate cover the Manly medal of Washington which we hope will reach you safely and meet with your approval. The medal is priced at $10. thus leaving a balance due you of $2.50. Shall we keep this to your credit, or if you prefer we will send check for $2.50 and thus balance the transaction.

Thank you for the remittance and your good wishes. Have managed to keep well during the winter in spite of the cold and hope you and your family have been well also. With kindest regards,

Yours very truly,

Dr. P. M. Gillis,

Dear Sir,

Your letter received this morning and we are sending under separate cover four of the Manly medals in different states of preservation so that you may examine them and see if they differ from the one previously sent. Hope you may find something different.

Have managed to keep well during a very hot summer and only hope the winter will not be as cold by comparison,

With kindest regards,

Yours very truly,

On approval,
